The Work of the Wildlife Trusts

The Nottinghamshire Wildlife Trust is the county's largest environmental charity, run by local people for the benefit of local wildlife. The Trust is a member of the Wildlife Trusts partnership made up of 47 local trusts across the UK. Together they manage more than 2500 nature reserves and involve over 600,000 members.

Mr Paul Learoyd, Chief Executive of the Nottinghamshire Wildlife Trust, leads a team of 55 people whose work includes protection of nature reserves, campaigning for wildlife, protecting threatened habitats and providing educational activities and events.

Mr Learoyd will talk about the recently completed a 5-year strategic plan and the work of the Wildlife Trusts nationally and locally, including water and wetland activities.

This meeting contributes 2 hours toward CPD.

We gratefully acknowledge the Environment Agency for donating the venue.
