

BREAKFAST WEBINAR SERIES | CIWEM Chartership competencies

22 April - 8 July 2020 | 08:30 – 09:00

Hosted by CIWEM Metropolitan branch

A series of 12 weekly breakfast webinars reviewing the Chartered Water and Environmental Manager (C.WEM) competencies and linking to the Chartered Environmentalist (C.Env), Chartered Scientist (C.Sci) and Chartered Engineer (C.Eng) competencies.

Please note that competencies D1. Ability to communicate in English and E2. Discuss your commitment to CIWEM are not covered in this series of webinars.

Itinerary

Competency A	Existing and emerging factors influencing environmental and water issues
22 April 2020	A1: Knowledge of wider environmental issues and trends Jack Southon Associate Consultant, Environment Capita
29 April 2020	A2: Ability to develop strategies or plans to address changes in your sector Katherine Woollard Water Resources Management Plan Specialist Thames Water
Competency B	Planning, implementation and evaluation of work
6 May 2020	B1: Ability to analyse and evaluate environmental and/or water problems Iain Stevenson Strategic Network Specialist Thames Water
13 May 2020	B2: Ability to solve problems by identifying, developing and evaluating options Katherine Woollard Water Resources Management Plan Specialist Thames Water
20 May 2020	B3: Ability to initiate, implement and manage change Jack Southon Associate Consultant, Environment Capita
27 May 2020	B4: Ability to plan and implement solutions and monitor their continuing performance Iain Stevenson Strategic Network Specialist Thames Water
Competency C	Safe and effective working practices
3 June 2020	C1: Ability to manage resources effectively and efficiently Jack Southon Associate Consultant, Environment Capita
10 June 2020	C2: Understanding, promotion and application of Health and Safety (H&S) Iain Stevenson Strategic Network Specialist Thames Water
17 June 2020	C3: Your contribution to sustainability Katherine Woollard Water Resources Management Plan Specialist Thames Water
24 June 2020	C4: Understanding, promotion and application of quality enhancement and Quality assurance (QA) Jack Southon Associate Consultant, Environment Capita
Competency D	Communication and professional ethics
1 July 2020	D2: Work professionally, ethically and comply with relevant codes of conduct Iain Stevenson Strategic Network Specialist Thames Water
Competency E	Professional development
8 July 2020	E1: Demonstrate continuing professional development Katherine Woollard Water Resources Management Plan Specialist Thames Water