

CIWEM Scottish branch evening symposium and annual dinner 2019

24 October 2019

Apex Hotel Grassmarket, 31-35 Grassmarket, Edinburgh EH1 2HS

Itinerary

4:30pm	Registration Opens and refreshments
17:00 – 17:30	Session 1: Use of an Aerated Wetland to treat Intermittent Spills in Cowdenbeath
	Hamish McLean Atkins This presentation will cover the development and modelling of an aerated wetland solution to manage CSOs spills affecting water quality in the Lochgelly Burn. This was developed as an alternative to a traditional scheme large and expensive scheme.
17:30 -18:00	Session 2: Cliff and Shore Sensitivity to Accelerating Sea Level Rise
	Mike Walden WSP This session will discuss how WSP are providing a straightforward means of accounting for accelerated sea level rise when predicting cliff recession around England and Wales. The presentation will share some of the insights that have emerged from the study and consider implications for the prediction of coastal change in Scotland.
18:00 – 18:30	Networking with prosecco and canapes

In the second half of the evening guests will have the option of two sessions – Please notify Barbara Woods at Barbara.woods@ciwem.org with your preferred option after booking.

18:30 - 19:30	Option One
18:30 – 19:00	Session 3: The North Glasgow Integrated Water Management System (NGIWMS).
	Debbie Hay Smith AECOM Pascal Lang Innovyze "Glasgow's Smart Canal", has created a pioneering drainage system, using the canal as an intelligent water management system to provide surface water storage and conveyance to unlock regeneration within Scotland's Central Belt. This presentation will focus on the hydraulic modelling which is a key feature of the real-time operational management of the canal.
19:00 – 19:30	Session 4 : Presentation
	Jonathon Hay Hydro-Logic Services Presentation by this specialist hydrological and water resources consultancy who through their comprehensive data, analysis and advice service cover applications ranging from flood warnings, to simulated floods and droughts.

OR

18:30 - 19:30	Option Two
18:30 – 19:00	Session 3b: WiFRM network launch
	The WiFRM Scottish network aims to inspire, support and connect women of all backgrounds in the Flood Risk Management sector in Scotland, The group is open to anyone who supports this vision. This session is an interactive networking event is to officially launch our Scottish Hub and for attendees to help shape the future of the network in terms of the ambition for the group, determining focus areas and setting goals for the first 12 months.

--	---

19:30 – 22:00	Dinner in Hyatt restaurant with Welcome by Incoming Scottish Branch Chair
---------------	---